Resale merchandise must be in excellent condition, intact and free of stains. All items to be considered must be laundered or dry-cleaned prior to consignment.

Any necessary charges for dry-cleaning, repairs, appraisals & third-party authentications will be applied to your account. These charges will be deducted from any amount owing to you, the consignor. If no items sell, then these charges must be paid for in full before any items are returned back to the consignor.

The Cat's Meow Vintage Inc. reserves the right to accept or reject articles.

The Cat's Meow Vintage Inc. will set the selling price after consultation with the owner of the articles.

Articles will be on consignment for a minimum period of 6 months. A 10% stocking fee will be charge if items are prematurely removed. While every effort is made to achieve the highest re-sale price for consigned items, The Cat's Meow Vintage Inc. reserves the right to lower prices after a time period of 60 days. We will continue to lower the prices until the items have been sold.

The consignor will receive 50% of the final selling price. Variations in commission may be made for high-demand items such as luxury accessories, fine jewellery & watches. Consignors will be paid out monthly by cheque and will be contacted via email or phone.

The Cat's Meow Vintage Inc. takes the best of care of articles left on consignment. However, we (The Cat's Meow Vintage Inc.) are not responsible for any loss or damage including fire and theft.

Items may be sent out and used for press/media including (but not limited to); magazines and television shows.

Items may be sold on layaway. The consignor will receive their payment when the item has been paid off in full.

Merchandise needing to be returned back to the consignor will be considered abandoned if not claimed after 2 phone calls.

I have read and understood the above conditions and terms as set forth in this contract.
